DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

New corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in this application because the drawings are lacking the required format. Applicant is advised to employ the services of a competent patent draftsman outside the Office, as the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office no longer prepares new drawings. The corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The requirement for corrected drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Objections

Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informality, line 6 of claim 1 "the packet" has no antecedent basis. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 discloses that the first and second dequeuers are dequeuing "the portions of the packet" it is unclear as to whether the dequeuers are dequeuing the same portions of the packet or different portions of the packet. Given the scope of the invention, it is the Examiner's understanding that the first and second dequeuers are dequeuing separate portions of the same packet, however, the Examiner cannot be certain and the claim language is indefinite regarding this feature.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Zhou et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,473,435).

The applied reference has a common assignee with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

Regarding claims 1 and 9, Zhou teaches an apparatus for transferring packets including a port card for receiving packets and a plurality of fabrics connected to the port card (see figure 2), each fabric switching a portion of a packet and a first and second dequeuer (see column 3, lines 30-40; and column 4, lines 36-44 and lines 59-65; and column 7, lines 19-50), and a state machine for controlling the dequeuing operation (see column 17, lines 5-10).

Regarding claims 2-8 and 10-17, Zhou teaches separate dequeuing performed by the queues (column 3, lines 25-30), a memory controller for the dequeuers and state machine (column 4, lines 36-44), 2 bits used for operation (see column 5, lines 1-2), an aggregator (see figure 4A), a striper for striping the data packets (see figures 2-3), where the striping is a protective form of switching redundancy, and where the first and second dequeuers are connected synchronously (see figure 3).
